During my time in the Netherlands, I was an active member of the improvised theatre community in Amsterdam. I played with the groups Improphecy and The Improfessors, and I was one of the light and sound technicians for EasyLaughs. I also contribute to the website <http://observatorio.info>, an ongoing non-profit project to translate into Spanish the full contents of NASA's Astronomy Picture of the Day archive (<http://apod.nasa.gov/apod>).
